The idea that this is a dry as dust dogma, an enigma, a hurdle for the preacher and means of making people feel inadequate, should be dispelled by simply paying attention to the readings. Moses, before the doctrine of the Trinity was even thought of, calls on the Lord as a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness. Jesus says to Nicodemus God so loved the world that he gave his only Son. Paul signs off his letter to the Corinthians with the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. Paul's is the only post-Resurrection perspective in these readings. Jesus did not teach the doctrine of the Trinity, he embodied it. On the last Sundays of Eastertide he speaks of his Father to whom he was to return, and the Spirit whom he would send to us. The Church did not come to an agreement on the Trinity until the 4th century, with the words which we say every week in the Creed. It does not add anything to scripture but was the result of establishing what could not be said about Jesus. He is divine, he has existed for ever with the Father, and the Spirit is to be adored and glorified equally with them. All these propositions had been denied, but we do not question them now, rather we naturally say In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Liturgy Planner

For Today Mass

Responsorial psalm

To you glory and praise for evermore

Gospel acclamation

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: the God who is, who was and who is to come.

Jezus stał się człowiekiem z miłości do nas. Przyszedł, aby nas zbawić. By jednak Jego dar rzeczywiście zaowocował w człowieku zbawieniem, potrzeba odpowiedzi, potrzeba po prostu wiary. Bóg traktuje nas poważnie i sam chciałby być tak potraktowany. Co to znaczy? To znaczy, że jak On ma osobiste odniesienie do mnie i do ciebie, tak wymaga, by każdy z nas miał osobiste odniesienie do Niego. Każdy za siebie ma zdecydować: tak, wierzę. Wierzę w Jego dobre intencje wobec mnie, w tę nieskończoną miłość, która zawiodła Go aż na krzyż, abym ja nie musiał się tam znaleźć, abym nie był cierpiący i niespełniony na wieki. Wierzę, że Jezus Chrystus, Syn Boży, prawdziwy Bóg i prawdziwy Człowiek, Druga Osoba Trójcy Przenajświętszej, osobiście pragnie mieć mnie blisko siebie na zawsze. Wierzę i proszę – mogę prosić – Ducha Świętego, aby umacniał i utwierdzał moją wiarę. Mateusz.pl
