The first reading is a rare example in the Lectionary from the Book of Job. There is not time to summarise the main events of this book but the verses chosen show the power of God over the sea and storms; in fact it is the first illustration God gives of his power after a long series of reproaches by Job. The psalm repeats the same idea, in what is an almost exact parallel to the Gospel; the Lord summons the gale; the people are afraid and cry to the Lord in their need; he rescues them from their distress and stills the storm. The gospel is a retelling of this story, but with real people. Jesus and the disciples were in the boat as he had been preaching from it. The wind came up as it does in the Sea of Galilee and the disciples were afraid for their lives. They called upon their sleeping master to wake up but made no request of him. He woke up and immediately 'rebuked' the wind and told the sea to be calm, and this was so. He then rebuked them for having no faith, but they seem genuinely surprised at Jesus's action, which, as we have seen from the 1R and Psalm, was something that only God claimed to do. No wonder they said 'who can this be?' • 2R is a small masterpiece of Christian faith, ending with the statement that there is a new creation, and the old one has passed away. This is the new creation where God rescues us from death. Liturgy planner.

For Today Mass

Responsorial psalm

O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

Gospel acclamation

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us

Bóg wychodzi naprzeciw człowiekowi z Swym słowem. W Księgi Hioba dowiemy się, że tylko Bóg jest jedynym Panem i Stwórcą wszystkiego, co istnieje. W drugim czytaniu będziemy uczestnikami nowego stworzenia, nowej relacji człowieka z Bogiem, ta nowa komunia ze Stwórcą, została zapoczątkowana przez Jezusa Chrystusa, który przez Swą ofiarę na krzyżu pojednał ludzkość z sobą i z Ojcem. W Ewangelii, Chrystus oczekuje od nas bezgranicznego zaufania i oddania się tylko Jemu, bo tylko On jest wstanie przemienić i uciszyć rozkrzyczane i rozszalałe ludzkie serca. WIARA.PL
